Qamea Resort & Spa Qamea Island, Tavenui, Fiji Islands

Qamea's eleven authentic Beachfront Bures all have thatched roofs and were designed and built in traditional Fijian style, with soaring 20 foot ceilings and hand polished local mahogany hardwood floors. In addition to our eleven Beachfront Bures, we also offer a split level 1,200 square foot Honeymoon Villa. This is a stunning split-level villa built, as are the other bures at Qamea, in the traditional Fijian style, with high woven bamboo ceilings and polished mahogonay hardwood floors. It also boasts a private outdoor courtyard with shower and jacuzzi spa bath.

Qamea and her neighboring islands offer a tropical paradise of adventure and beauty. Guests can avail themselves of a wide range of complimentary activities including incredible snorkeling, hobie cat sailing, windsurfing, sea canoeing, hiking, croquet, visiting one of the local villages and lots more. Our diving is also world renowned, and with a fully equipped PADI dive facility our diving staff can introduce you to an underwater adventure you will long remember.

The cuisine at Qamea can best be described as South Pacific Rim, which is similar to California Cuisine. Our fruits and vegetables are organic, and if not from our own gardens, are flown in three times a week from New Zealand. All of our seafood is local, caught daily by our two Qamea fishermen. Our beef and poultry is also flown in from Australia and New Zealand.
