The Pearl South Pacific is a stylish boutique resort which overlooks the beautiful Bega Lagoon. It is situated approximately halfway between Nadi and Suva along the Coral Coast. The Pearl South Pacific is a sun-drenched resort set by the beach and surrounded by lush, tropical landscape. The Pearl is an idyllic escape where chic accommodation, exquisite cuisine and as much – or as little – adventure and relaxation await you.

The Pearl South Pacific

The Pearl South Pacific has been recently refurbished, and offers 78 rooms and suites. There are the Garden View rooms, the Ocean View rooms, and the 6 Penthouse suites. Each room is equipped with an iron, a safe, a hairdryer and a telephone. As well as this each room also has a balcony or courtyard, air conditioning, a fridge and a colour television.

The Pearl South Pacific has 4 individual restaurants including, the Mantarae Restaurant, a formal restaurant, the Beach Bar and Grill with a Sunday Night seafood BBQ, and The Bistro located conveniently next to the pool and beach. Accompanying these there are 6 bars. These include the Foyer Bar, which has a very impressive collection of Pacific artwork, spanning the full length of the bar.

The Pearl South Pacific also has a wide variety of water and land based activities to enjoy. These include free water activities such as a swimming pool with a swim-up bar, river & sea kayaks and snorkelling from the beach. As well as on land activities such as tennis and golf, though charges apply. Some of the more premium activities on water include white-water rafting, deep sea fishing, and a sight seeing boat trip.
